

Government of Western Australia
Department of the Attorney General

The Law Library

Schedule of fees

Pre-Paid Account:

Set up and card: $10.00

Photocopying within The Law Library:

30 cents per page

Printing within The Law Library:

55 cents per page

Document Delivery:

There is a $5.50 minimum charge for all document delivery

CBD practitioners

Receive document by post: Photocopying = $1.10 per page + postage

Receive document by fax: $3.30 per page

Receive document by email: $22.00 per case/article

Research fee (if task takes more than 90 minutes): $11.00

Regional fee paying user

Receive document by post: Photocopying = 55 cents per page + postage

Receive document by fax: $3.30 per page

Receive document by email: $22.00 per case/article

Research (if task takes more than 90 minutes): $11.00

Interstate Practitioners

Receive document by post: Photocopying = $1.10 per page + postage

Receive document by fax: $4.40 per page

Receive document by email: $22.00 per case/article

Research fee (if task takes more than 90 minutes): $11.00

Interlibrary loans *

Core - 4 business days: $16.50

Rush – 24 hours: $33.00

Express – 2 hours: $49.50

*The provision of a copy of a document from outside The Law Library's collection obtained by email through the Australian Interlibrary Resource Sharing Network. Interlibrary loans are charged according to the National Library of Australia document supply service charges, as of November 2013 (reviewed with no changes in 2015).

As gazetted in the Legal Profession (Law Library Fees) Rules 2017 on the 13 January 2017.
Government Gazette: GG no. 11 of 2017, p 364.